The New County ! ourt-The organization of the county court will furnish a relief to lawyers and litigants which has long been desired.

With the jurisdiction of the present district court it will be of equal dignity and being always in resslen will afford the remedies without delay which the district court metes out after tedious

The citizens of Cochise are glad of the relief and are thankful to the governor for the judgment displayed in the select ion of a judge thereof.

Webster Street, Esq. (once Webb Street but now judge) is known to all citizens both old and new.

He is one of Tombstones oldest inhabi ants and indeed helped to settle the

Although young he has long beer known as an excellent lawyer and has en joyed a full practice in our courts along side of and against ex-judges and old an i experienced lawye's with a reputation co extensive with the coast. He is a patient and diligent student, and added to a stock of knowledge, has a judgment which his brother members of the bar have called a safe one. Their unani mous choice of Mr. Street and their first to obtain his appointment as judge must give to the people a confidence in the court.
